National Geographic History

In this issue, we explore...

Remember, Remember! On November 5, 1605, GUY FAWKES was found with 36 barrels of gunpowder stored under the Houses of Parliament. Arrested and tortured, he revealed the Gunpowder Plot, a plan hatched by him and his co-conspirators to blow up the king and the Houses of Parliament with him. Fawkes's downfall is celebrated every year in Britain, while his visage has become a modern symbol of protest around the world.
